

Name _____

Marshmallow Lab Report Rubric

Criteria	Beginning	Approaching	Meeting	Exceeding
Writing	Writing is difficult to understand. Many mistakes in spelling, capitalization, and grammar.	Writing is unclear or is not concise. A few mistakes in spelling, capitalization, or grammar.	Clear and concise writing. Correct spelling, capitalization, and grammar.	Lab report is easy to read. Spelling, capitalization, and grammar are perfect.
Data Analysis and Error	Incorrect or misleading interpretation of data. Discussion of 0-1 sources of error. No changes to the lab were described and explained.	Slightly incorrect or incomplete interpretation of data. Discussion of only 2 sources of error. Only one change to the lab was described and explained.	Reasonable interpretation of data with supporting reasons. Discussion of at least 3 sources of error in lab. At least two changes to the lab were described and explained.	Insightful interpretation of data with discussion and many supporting reasons. Discussion of more than 3 sources of error. More than two changes to the lab were described and explained
Discussion	Much information is incorrect or missing. Analysis of your Calories is missing or very inaccurate.	Some information is incorrect or missing. Analysis of your Calories is incomplete or slightly inaccurate.	Information is correct. Analysis of your day's Calories is complete and accurate.	Meeting plus: Extra details or information is given.
Completeness & Accuracy	Several days late. Sections incomplete or missing. Much information is missing or in the wrong section.	One day late. All sections complete, but some information is missing or in wrong section.	On-time. All sections complete with necessary information, organized into the correct sections.	Criteria for meeting plus: Additional information or discussion in several sections.